Newsy Notes From Various Quarters.

THE TRIAL OF CAPT. DUDLEY.

Meanness that Killed—The Spanish-American Treaty Lynching in California—Burned.

Bottom Touched.

NEW YORK, December 9.—The Post's financial says: One of the signs of the times indicates a growing belief that prices of commodities are as low as they are likely to be at all. It is announced that the Montreal agent of the syndicate in the city in the interest of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, is now in Manitoba for the purpose of investing $1,000,000, advanced by the Bank of Montreal, in wheat, to be purchased at Winnipeg, at market rates there. The latest dispatches say shipments via the Canadian Pacific to Port Arthur, will begin at once, and the wheat held in store there until the spring. Still another instance of the same kind is the advance in the last few days in prices of some metals, lead having advanced 10 per cent. in two days, in consequence of speculative investments. Cotton has also advanced to some extent under the same influences in the last few weeks. These features are the results of endeavors to find employment for idle funds. The unprecedented amount of idle funds in New York banks, and lower rates of interest here than in London, are also the chief causes of the firmness of the market for sterling.

Still Anti-Chinese.

WASHINGTON, December 9.—Senator Miller says the Supreme Court's Chinese decision would create considerable feeling on the Pacific Coast, but he hoped the courts there would take pains to carefully examine into the testimony submitted in favor of the admission of Chinese under this parole testimony, and develop the fact that wholesale perjury is being practised to get Chinese into the country. He said he deemed it very probable that Pacific Coast Congressmen will introduce and put through another bill so carefully framed as to shut out, despite judicial decisions, new arrivals of Chinese.

The Opyke Failure.

NEW YORK, December 9.—Opyke & Co.'s liabilities are stated to be a little over $100,000. Only about 500 shares of stock involved in the failure are on the stock exchange. The failure is said to have resulted from the inability to renew loans on securities, which had previously been accepted.

Assignee of the above-mentioned banking firm of George Opyke & Co., said today that it was not such a failure as should cause any great degree of uneasiness, and one that aside from the old name of the house would command comparatively little attention. E. F. M. Miller, board member of the firm stated his belief that the total liabilities would not exceed $100,000 of which nearly $20,000 is secured.

American Catholicism

ROME, December 9.—The Pope, last Sunday, in replying to an address of pupils of the American college, presented to His Holiness in honor of the 25th anniversary of the foundation of the college, said he always felt great affection for the American clergy, and he was much gratified at the progress which Catholicism had made in the United States.

Meanness that Killed.

St. Louis, Mo., November 9.—J. B. Johnson, a convict in the penitentiary at Jefferson City, who set fire to the prison shop on February 23d, 1884, causing a conflagration which cost the State about $300,000, was tried in Cole County circuit court for arson, yesterday, convicted, and sentenced to ten additional years in the penitentiary. He now has about twenty years to serve.

What are the desirable qualities in a whisker dye? It must be convenient to use, easy to apply, impossible to rub off, elegant in appearance, and cheap in price. Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers meets in itself all these merits. Try it.

Growing Serious.

LONDON, December 9.—Captain Dudley and mate of the wrecked yacht Mignonette, found guilty of murder in killing the boy Parker, for food to keep themselves alive, were today sentenced to death. It is believed they will certainly be pardoned.

The courtroom was crowded, and the scene during the pronouncing of the sentence was most impressive. Lord Chief-Justice Coleridge read the judgment of the court, citing authorities at length. The court declared that the taking of human life could only be justified on the plea of self-defense. The commission of murder for the sake of preserving one's own life was unjustifiable. Of course, it was a duty to preserve one's own life, but duty often required one not to save but to sacrifice his own life. The court must apply the law and declare that the prisoners were guilty of murder, for which there was no justification. If this judgment was too severe, the court must leave the prisoners to the clemency of the crown. The prisoners were asked what they had to say before sentence was pronounced. Both Captain Dudley and Mate Stephens pleaded for mercy in view of their terrible situation when the deed was done. Lord Coleridge said it was the jury's privilege to recommend the prisoners to mercy, and then sentenced them to be hanged, but without the black cap. The Secretary of State for the Home Department advises the Queen to respite the captain and mate.

The Spanish-American Treaty.

CHICAGO, December 9.—Daily News' Washington special: The full text of the Spanish-American treaty having been made public, there is much talk and comment in Congressional circles regarding its probable effect, if ratified. One of the first points made is that the treaty cannot be considered without bringing forward a general and full discussion of the whole tariff question. This does not seem to meet with much favor among Republicans or Democrats. It is felt that the treaty would have stood a better chance of being ratified if it had not been made public. It is thought at the department that the treaty has been observed, and that the Spanish government could or would not have been guilty of such discourtesy as this. It is very evident that there is going to be very bitter opposition to the treaty on the part of the sugar and tobacco interests. It is not at all improbable that the present Senate may, for want of sufficient time, not consider the treaty, but let it go over to the extra session, which will be called as soon as Mr. Cleveland takes the oath of office, to consider Cabinet appointments.

Trans-Continental Rates.

CHICAGO, December 9.—The Trans-continental Railway association continued its work preparing the freight tariff to the Pacific Coast to-day, but will not reach a final decision until after consultation with eastern trunk line managers as to rates between New York and this city. Officers of the association go to New York to-night for that purpose.

Canadian Pacific Bonds.

MONTREAL, December 9.—Over $9,000,000 of the $25,000,000 of Canadian Pacific land grant bonds have been redeemed and cancelled by the sale of land. Five millions are deposited with the finance department of government as security for the execution of the contract, and 4,000 are lodged in trust until earned. The balance outstanding is under 1,000,000.

Missouri Lynching.

St. Louis, Mo., December 9.—Charles Stevens, a desperado, known as "Omaha Charley," who killed Hubert Kramer at Maryville, Mo., December 3, was this morning taken from jail, after a fight with the sheriff by a mob, and hung on the railroad bridge. One of the mob was dangerously wounded by the sheriff.

Dementia.

CHICAGO, December 9.—The Journal's special from Whitewater, Wis., denies the story that Nettie Horan, before dying, confessed to have poisoned her father, mother and two sisters. It is declared that she died from dementia, brought on by excessive grief over the death of other members of her family.

An Official Jap.

WASHINGTON, December 9.—Oyama, Japanese Minister of War, was presented to the President to-day by the Secretary of State. He was accompanied by the secretary of the Chinese legation.

Lynching in California.

DAGGETT, California, December 9.—A mob of twenty men, this morning, surrounded the officers in charge of Lou Farthing and William White, alias William Pitts, charged with having clubbed Josiah Harris to death with a wagon spoke, on the night of the 5th inst. The mob told the officers to keep perfectly quiet and there would be no fuss. They then marched Pitts to the outskirts of town, pulled a rope around his neck, threw the other end over the cross-arm of a telegraph pole and hoisted him up. He was dead in a few minutes. Pitts was a deserter from the United States army, having been enlisted under the name of William H. White in the Second Cavalry, Company F, stationed at Fort Ellis, Montana. Farthing was told to leave the country.

The Regular Dividend.

PHILADELPHIA, December 9.—The board of directors of the Lehigh Valley Railway Company to-day declared a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent.

NEW YORK, December 9.—The executive committee of the Western Union Telegraph Company recommended the declaration of a quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent. No action was taken in regard to a reduction in employees' salaries and none is contemplated.

Indian Ovation.

BOMBAY, December 9.—The arrival of Lord Dufferin, new Viceroy of India, yesterday was made the occasion of a brilliant reception. The city was gaily decorated and the new viceroy received a grand ovation. The town council made an appropriation of 4,000 rupees with which to present Lord Dufferin and the retiring viceroy, the Marquis of Ripon, with illuminated addresses and caskets of silver.

Burned to Death.

SHERMAN, Pa., 9.—Early this morning three blocks of houses at Trenton, a small mining patch near here, were totally destroyed by fire. Six persons, Thomas Barlow, his wife and three children, and a boarder named Fitzgerald, were burned to death. Only one of the Barlow family, a child five years old, was saved.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., December 9.—The steamer City of Springfield, was obliged to put into this harbor last night on account of the gale.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom."

The temperance drama, entitled as above, will be presented, for the benefit of the Deseret Hospital, on Monday the 22d inst., in the Twentieth Ward Assembly Rooms, with the following cast: G. J. Bywater, Joe Morgan; David Evans, Old Slade; Miss Florence Wilson, Mrs. Morgan; John Affleck, Sample Switchel; Joseph Raymond, Willie Hammond; C. E. Clissold, Harvey Green; Oliver Owen, Frank Slade; Joseph Robinson, Mr. Romaine; Mrs. Clissold, Mable Cartwright, and Miss Mary Ann Affleck, Mary Morgan, with song, "Father, Dear Father, Come Home With Me Now." This is a good amateur cast, and as the proceeds are for a very worthy object there should be a jammed house.

Servants of the Stomach.

The new Governor General of Canada brought with him thirty-nine servants. That seems a good many. But every stomach has more servants than that. Lungs, liver, heart, arteries, veins, esophagus, kidneys and all the rest of the party must be kept in prime order if first-class service is expected. Brown's Iron Bitters is the great regulator for all these. It gets them when in rebellion, and keeps them to their work when they are lazy.

Reconstruction Impossible.

This may not be true as regards States—indeed we know it is not; but it is absolutely true as regards those delicate organs, the human lungs. When they are disorganized and partly consumed, they cannot be restored to a healthy condition. But bear in mind that this misfortune can never happen if Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is administered as a remedy for the cough which always precedes pulmonary consumption. Sold by druggists everywhere at 25c, 50c, and $1. Great saving to get the large size.

Smith—"Jones refused to pay a little debt he owes me, and I want you to bring suit against him for the money."

Lawyer—"All right; but lawyers, you know, always expect something in the way of a retainer."

"Certainly; how much will it be?"

"About fifty dollars, I guess."

"Fifty dollars? Why, Jones only owes me twenty-five dollars."

"Oh, well, call it twenty-five dollars, then."

CONGRESS.

The Work of the Lawmakers Yesterday.

A BILL TO ADMIT DAKOTA.

One to Restore a Republican Form of Government in Miss.

The Senate.

WASHINGTON, December 9.—Hale called up the naval appropriation bill which, at the close of the last session, was in the hands of a conference committee, and asked why that committee reported it had been unable to agree. He moved the Senate further insist on its amendments and a new conference was ordered.

Sherman introduced a bill to provide for the erection of a statue to the memory of Lafayette.

Slater called up the Oregon Central Land forfeiture bill, but the Senate, by a vote of 29 yeas to 30 nays, refused to consider it.

It was then decided by a party vote, yeas 34, nays 25, to take up the bill for the admission of Dakota; Republicans voting in the affirmative, and Democrats in the negative.

The Dakota bill thus secured the right of way for 2 o'clock.

The Texas Pacific railway land grant forfeiture was made the special order for Tuesday next.

The bill to provide for the sale of the Cherokee reservation in Arkansas passed.

The bill to amend the sections of the revised statutes which prohibited the delivery of registered letters and the payment of money orders to letter companies passed. The amendment consists of striking out the word "fraudulent" so as to cover lotteries generally, not merely "fraudulent" lotteries.

Harrison addressed the Senate at length, advocating the admission of the new State, and pleading for a non-partisan consideration of the subject.

The Chair announced the appointment of Logan and Beck on the naval conference committee.

After an executive session adjourned.

The House.

WASHINGTON, December 9.—Chalmers introduced a bill to restore a Republican form of government to the State of Mississippi. Referred. Some derisive laughter from the Democratic side greeted the reading of the title of this bill. It provides that the Congressional and State elections shall be held on the same day in that State. Each candidate for Congress shall be permitted to appoint in writing, one inspector and clerk at each voting precinct, who shall be permitted to witness all the proceedings. It is made a crime punishable by fine and imprisonment for any person to assault, intimidate, threaten or insult any inspector or clerk.

Consideration of the inter-state commerce bill having been resumed, Barksdale addressed the House in a Constitutional argument in support of the right of Congress to legislate on the subject.

Horr favored the appointment of a commission of inquiry with power to inquire into each particular case of injustice on the part of railroads, and to compel companies to furnish all the data necessary to investigate each transaction.

Reagan's substitute, Horr asserted, discriminated in favor of roads in certain States and against those which necessarily went through several States. "I would strike down all the cheap rates of the west and south," he said, "and the cheap transportation of flour and wheat from Kansas and Minnesota would be a thin slice of the pie. It would put dear bread into the mouths of the great working millions of the east instead of cheap bread."

He had no sympathy with that class of men who simply inveighed against railroad companies because they were corporations. It was a cheap kind of business for men to go about crying "monopoly."

The great wealth of Gould and Vanderbilt had not been taken from the pockets of the laboring men. The roads they built they paid for. They had made money by buying poorly managed roads, putting brains into them and making them profitable. Their gain was legitimate. They made money in another way, not from laboring men, but from men who went into Wall Street and then thought they were smarter than "these old fellows."

It could be proven to him that the railroads were becoming prosperous by extortionate charges, he would go as far as any man to correct the evil.

Adjourned.

WHAT STRUCK HIM!

The Mystery of a Deadly Attack Solved by a Newspaper Paragraph.

From the Boston Herald.

"How are Americans liked in England?"

And Mr. B. F. Larabee, of 42 Chestnut Square, ex-director of the New York & Boston Dispatch Express Company, who has recently returned from a considerable residence in London, answered: "If they have good recommendations and behave themselves they are well treated; but they will like the English people, anyway, when acquaintance ripens into confidence."

"How do the English compare with Americans?"

"The finest looking men in the world can be seen on pleasant days of the London season, promenading Piccadilly. The English ladies, however, are neither so neat in appearance nor so graceful of form and movement as the Americans, but they seem to enjoy more of the life of the city."

"Are English people longer lived than our people?"

"I don't know. I have not fully investigated. But I remember once hearing read a newspaper paragraph entitled 'Why do Englishmen Live Longer than Americans?' That paragraph, by the way, once solved a great mystery for me."

"Ah, indeed, another 'tribute to the power of the press!' suggested the reporter."

"Yes, if you so please to call it. In 1879, when I was residing at the Commonwealth hotel, in this city, I had occasion to do some business in Washington street. When I got to the corner of Franklin, I seemed to feel a blow in the breast and fell to the pavement like a dead man. When I recovered consciousness I was taken to my hotel."

I first thought perhaps some enemy had struck me, but my physicians assured me that such could not be the case and advised strictest quiet. For six long weeks I was unable to lie down. I was violently ill, and my physicians said I would probably never walk the streets of Boston again. I did not want to die, but who can expect to live when all doctors say he cannot?"

And Mr. Larabee smiled, sarcastically, and expressed himself very freely concerning the number of common disorders which are controlled by remedies which physicians will not employ.

"But how about the paragraph?"

"Yes, yes. When I was obliged to sit up in bed day and night for fear of suffocation, and lonely expected death, my nurse begged the privilege of reading that paragraph to me. I refused him at first but he persisted. It described my condition so exactly, that for the first time I began to realize what had prostrated me. I was filled with a strange hope. I at once dismissed my physicians, and immediately began Warner's Safe Cure. In a few months, I was restored to perfect health, notwithstanding mine was one of the worst possible cases of Bright's disease of the kidneys, which all my physicians—and I had the best specialists in Boston—said was incurable. I tell you, when a man gets into the desperate condition I was in, he doesn't forget what restores him."

"But were the effects permanent?"

"That was five years ago," said Mr. Larabee, "and for thirty years I have not been so well as during the past five years. If I had known what I do now, I would have checked the matter long ago, for it was in my system for years, revealing itself in my blood, by frequent attacks of chills, jaundice, vertigo, typhoid fever, nervousness, wakeful nights, etc., etc. I took over forty bottles before I got up and over one hundred and fifty before I was well. I have commended that treatment in thousands of cases of general debility, kidney and liver disorder, etc., and have never heard ill concerning it."

"Speaking of paragraphs, how do English papers compare with American, in this particular?"

"Well, they have fewer witty paragraphs, but the smaller papers, like the Pall Mall Gazette, St. James Gazette, and Truth, abound in sharp, incisive paragraphs without it. In general, American papers make the most of news, the London papers make the most of opinion."
